1 DAY DAYS

Arusha National Park — Full-Day Wildlife & Canoe Safari

Discover the hidden gem at Kilimanjaro's doorstep — game drives past giraffes and buffalos, then paddle a canoe across the Momella Lakes.

EDITORIAL OVERVIEW

Experience Overview

Arusha National Park is Tanzania's best-kept secret — a compact wilderness spanning from the alkaline Momella Lakes to the summit of Mount Meru, all within 45 minutes of Arusha city. This full-day excursion combines a classic game drive with a unique canoe safari, offering a wonderfully varied day in the African bush. Your morning begins with a game drive through acacia woodland where giraffes browse treetops, Cape buffalos gather in muddy wallows, and black-and-white colobus monkeys leap through the fig canopy. Keep your camera ready for the park's resident flamingos — thousands of lesser flamingos paint the Momella Lakes pink against a backdrop of Mount Meru's volcanic cone. After a gourmet picnic lunch overlooking the lakes, you'll board a canoe for a guided paddle across Big Momella Lake. Gliding silently past hippos, waterbuck, and nesting African fish eagles provides a perspective on African wildlife unavailable from any vehicle. Return to Arusha by late afternoon.
