Cascades de Materuni & Plantation de Café — Excursion Culturelle

Une immersion culturelle sur les pentes du Kilimandjaro — randonnée à travers des villages

Chagga vers une cascade de 80 mètres et torréfaction de café Arabica.

EDITORIAL OVERVIEW

Experience Overview

Nestled on the lush southern slopes of Mount Kilimanjaro, the village of Materuni offers a profoundly authentic Tanzanian experience that combines nature, culture, and world-class coffee. This full-day excursion is the perfect counterpoint to safari life — intimate, unhurried, and deeply human. Your journey begins at a family-owned Chagga coffee farm, where three generations have cultivated shade-grown Arabica beans on the volcanic soil of Kilimanjaro's foothills. You'll participate in every stage of the traditional process: picking ripe cherries, hand-roasting over wood fire, grinding with a mortar and pestle, and finally brewing and tasting cups of some of the world's finest single-origin coffee. Afterward, a guided forest trail leads through banana plantations and tropical vegetation to the Materuni Waterfall — an 80-metre cascade of crystal water plunging into a natural pool surrounded by emerald forest. On clear mornings, Kilimanjaro's snow-capped Kibo peak towers above the treeline behind you. A traditional Chagga lunch of plantain stew, fresh vegetables, and local brew concludes the experience before your return to Moshi.
